Gas Tax Shift for Pollution Killed

SACRAMENTO — A move to divert revenue from the sale of gasoline from highway construction to mass transit and smog research wall killed last week by the Senate Transportation Committee. This was the second important anti-pollution bill to be killed in two days by the Committee. Earlier in the week the Committee defeated a proposition to phase out the use of lead additives in gasoline by 1977.

Petition Filed to Halt Trial

SEASIDE — A petition for a writ to prohibit trial of 18 persons, cited by Seaside Police, for obstructing traffic during Seaside's Independence Day parade was filed in Superior Court last week. The Seaside 18 are all connected with the United Front Coffee House in Seaside. The petition filed by attorneys for the 18 asks that the lower court be ordered "to desist and refrain from proceeding any further" in the prosecution of the defendants.

The petition states that the Seaside ordinance, under which the arrests were made, violates equal protection of the laws and is constitutionally uncertain, vague and overbroad.

Publisher's Report Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

There is probably no group of people in the United States more oppressed than the Agricultural Worker--be he Black, White, Mexican-American, Filipino, Chinese, Hindu or Mexican bracero. That is why I was glad to read of the "victory" of Caesar Chavez' United Farm Workers Organizing Committee in the Salinas Valley over the Teamsters Union and the Growers. The Farm Workers Union is the first union to have had any success in the organization of these migrant workers.

Many attempts at organization have taken place since the days of John Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath." In the thirties many men were killed in the fields as vigilantes and, yes, even state highway patrolmen were used to stem the tide of organization. The government has for all these years turned their backs on these workers not even giving them the right to organize under the usual labor laws--rights that are granted to all other workers these days.

The reason that these laws have never included agricultural workers is that the House and Senate Committees are dominated by Southern Legislators who want to keep the wages of southern workers as low as they possibly can. They have succeeded, too. If conditions are bad

Thanks to Bautista Clan

The parents of the children that attended the Bautista Play Day at the Veterans' Memorial Park, Monterey, on August 2, wish to express their appreciation and gratitude to the Bautista Clan of Seaside for the program they sponsored for the children of this community.

The parents would also like to thank the Bautistas for the transportation, food, entertainment, prizes and the beautiful location for the occasion.

This enjoyable day will long be remembered by the children of this community. For some it was their first and only occasion to enjoy wholesome activities outside of Seaside.

The teenage boys' and girls' magnificent performance of escorting and supervising the children was greatly appreciated.

Bing Crosby Reappointed Chairman

Bing Crosby will head the annual Sight-Saving Campaign of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness for a second year, beginning in September, "Sight-Saving Month." The announcement came from Society president Bradford A. Warner at the organization's headquarters in New York City.

"In the year Mr. Crosby has been our spokesman," Warner noted, "media response to our prevention of blindness messages has been greater than ever before in the Society's history. At least half of all blindness is preventable, and this increased attention from the media means we're reaching more and more people across the country who may be saved from the unnecessary loss of their eyesight. Needless to say, we are immensely grateful that Mr. Crosby has agreed to serve as National Sight-Saving Chairman again, in 1970."

Crosby commented on his reappointment, saying, "My concern for blindness prevention has increased greatly over the last year. The thought that half of the more than 34,000 Americans who go blind in the next twelve months will do so needlessly is appalling. It is because the Society's efforts to prevent this tragedy are so important that I have accepted the chairmanship for another year."

Although public education activities continue all year long, during Sight-Saving Month, the National Society and its state affiliates step up efforts to inform people around the nation about the prevention of needless vision loss. Founded in 1908, the Society is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in the prevention of blindness through a comprehensive program of community services, public and professional education, and research.

Programs Mailed

Students attending Seaside High School this fall receive a copy of their program for the coming year in the mail the week of August 17-22. If the program is complete and satisfactory, the student will be expected to report to school and attend those classes on Thursday, September 3rd. If the program is not satisfactory, the student should call the Counseling Office at Seaside High School 649-7426 and an appointment will be made for him with his Counselor sometime during the week of August 24-28.

New students who were programmed during the month of August may not receive a copy of their programs in the mail but an official copy will be given them when they report for classes on the morning of September 3rd.

Students-initiated program changes will not be made during the first five school days as counselors will be busy programming new students, balancing classes, and making other necessary class adjustment. It is therefore important that students desiring a change come in during the week of August 24-28

Who Cares Housing Breaks Ground

by Mel Vercoe
Mix, the "good guy" cowboy in the white hat who always gave the bad guys more than an even break, but who always won out in the end, and with his hat still clean and white, because he was in the right and the other guys were just plain bad.

Tom never let us down. He never did anything to tarnish that image. But once in a while some boyhood hero (or girlhood hero in case you are a girl) would really let the air out of our sails like Robert Mitchum getting caught smoking marijuana, for example, and our hero is never again quite the same.

Watching uniforms go by in a parade, and seeing the American flag waving in the breeze and hearing the Star Spangled Banner these things all stand for the America we knew in our boyhood the "good guy" America that always did the right thing, never anything questionable. And we still get that old thrill when we see the uniforms and the flag and hear the National Anthem, but it isn't quite the same.

We condemned the German people during two world wars for allowing their military to commit what we considered atrocities, and we hated virtually all Japanese during the second world war because of the acts committed by their war machine, and this we could live with, because these were foreigners, not Americans, and nobody expected them to be "good guys".

But then came the bombing of Dresden, when our forces helped burn to death 135,000 civilians, mostly refugees from the eastern front, during a triple attack in one single day. And Dresden was admittedly not a military target. The initial marking point for the marker planes was a hospital complex. The well planned raid developed into a fire storm that killed almost twice as many people as were killed by the Hiroshima bomb, and our Mustang fighters machine-gunned a great many more when they tried to get away from the fire.

No, these acts were no different from acts committed by the Germans at Lidice and Coventry, except we worked on a larger scale. And the murders at My Lai were just exactly like murders committed by the so-called enemy--they all result in death. But we feel deflated.

We are no longer the "good guys" in the white hats. We are just like the rest of the human race, except we try to cover it up with a little more finesse and sophisticated lying and because we have international foreign soil--instead of here in America we are reluctant to face the reality that such a profitable pastime as a war can have anything wrong with it.

People are people and underneath there apparently is little or no difference between the Japanese who were bad and the Germans who were bad and the Americans who prefer not to study too closely.

And just for fun, picture yourself as a newspaper reporter sent here from some Groundbreaking ceremonies heralding the construction of 50 section 235 low-income homes in Seaside were held recently.

In a statement commemorating the occasion Merrill C. Beck, chairman of the redevelopment commission said: "The redevelopment agency of the city of Seaside is proud to participate in bringing the first of the 235 housing units to Seaside. Our city has made use of many federal programs during the past 10 years, but this program which provides good, sound houses for qualified low-income families, has the promise of being one of Seaside's most successful efforts. I congratulate all of those who worked so hard to get these houses under way in our Hannon Project."

Walter Brown, director of the Seaside Low Cost Housing group that is building the houses added: "The groundbreaking represents the beginning fruits of our efforts to provide a decent environment for all of our citizens of

PLAY DAY FOR SEASIDE CHILDREN

A play day and picnic sponsored by the Guillermo Bautista Clan, Sunday, August 2 at the Veteran's Memorial Park, Monterey, was a great success. Approximately 150 children participated in a variety of supervised games including a pie eating contest and hikes.

Children began gathering in the parking area behind the Del Rey Theater, around 9:30 a.m. Two bus loads of fun seekers were transported to and from this area for a fun-filled day. Peggy Bautista, 16 year-old daughter of the clan arranged a well planned agenda of games which all participated on rotating basis. Miss Bautista also recruited senior student helpers to assist in various activities planned. Students, who assisted, attend our local high schools. They were Charles Smith, Oscar Guardiola, Shelly James, Arelino and Arenie Pitts, Andrew and Easton Isadore, Michael Dorsey, Barbara Cole, Barbara Yamashita, Debbie Panganiban, Kathy King, Paula Paterson, Cyd and Mildred Antang and Junie Hill.

Making ready for the heavy appetites of children, and rushing to serve food by 12:15, were chefs Gary Ryan, Art Woodfin and Alfeo Antang. They were assisted by Guil Bautista, Marion Woodie, Richard Woodie, Rudolph Williams and M.E. Harris. Other adults participating and members of the Fil-American Club, were Mr. P. Mateo, Mr. Glen Oleo and Mr. Primo Nuqui.

The Mayor and other city officials were invited to join in the fun of the day planned for our children. Those attending were Councilman Steve Ross, Councilwomen Pearl Carey and City Manager, Mr. Milton Farrell, his wife and their children. Farrell's brother, Mr. Harrison of San Francisco also attended. Another honored guest was Mr. Marcial Sabado, President of the Fil-American Club; Mr. Deseo, Dillingham Corp right-hand man, flew from Hawaii and shared an enjoyable afternoon.

The Bautista clan would like to openly acknowledge their thanks and appreciation to Beardsley's for their donation of a variety of delicious donuts; Luce Meat Market for 500 weiners; Garneros Bakery for hot dog buns; Mr. Art Woodfin, representing the Monterey Jaycees, who provided bus transportation and arranged the park recreation site and Mrs. Marion Woodie,

Mobile Home Sales Soar

Sales in the four northern California Friendly Village mobile home parks soared to a high of $10.7 million for the first six months of 1970, Frank Oman, regional manager of American Mobilehome Corporation, announced recently. The four parks include the Friendly Villages of Stockton, 8600 North West Lane; 4001 Sonoma Highway, Santa Rosa; 120 West Dixon Landing Road, Milpitas and 125 Sahara Drive,

Sun Valley. The company currently has a fifth park in Modesto under construction. According to company president, Hubert Temple, the villages are recreation minded. He rates this as a major reason for the success of them in California. Other reasons for the popularity, says Temple, are the rising cost of living and the housing shortage.

Alumni Group Organized

Ambassador Fulton Freeman, president of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies, has formally announced the formation of an alumni association at the institute. Following several informal preliminary gatherings of selected alumni, faculty, staff and trustees, an organizational meeting was held at the Freeman home and the following officers were elected: president, Mr. Mitko Nedeff of Carmel Valley; vice president, Mr. Robert Burch of Pebble Beach; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Marina York of Monterey. These officers plan to meet in the near future to give permanent form to the organization. "The idea for an alumni association came voluntarily from graduates and former students," Freeman explained, "and was welcomed enthusiastically by staff, faculty and trustees. The association not only will serve as a social organization, but, in addition, will have a serious purpose. Graduates and former students can gain much from a sharing of their professional experiences and from programs of continuing education, making use of the institute's faculty and facilities."

Santa Clara To Feature Auto Derby

Sharp increase in entries indicate a record number of drivers and cars will take part in the annual Destruction Derby at the Santa Clara County Fair in San Jose on Sunday afternoon, August 23.

Last year's crash derby attracted 82 cars and 4,744 spectators to watch the teams compete for the $1,000 posted prize money. Speedway Enterprises Inc. reports entries ahead of last year, with several individuals already signed up for team assignment at start of the 3 p.m. action.

Car crashing begins at 3 p.m., but all cars must be in the arena by 1 p.m. Under the watchful eyes of the team of referees, the action continues until just one car remains running. That driver's team picks up the $500 first place money, plus points toward the California Destruction Derby championship.

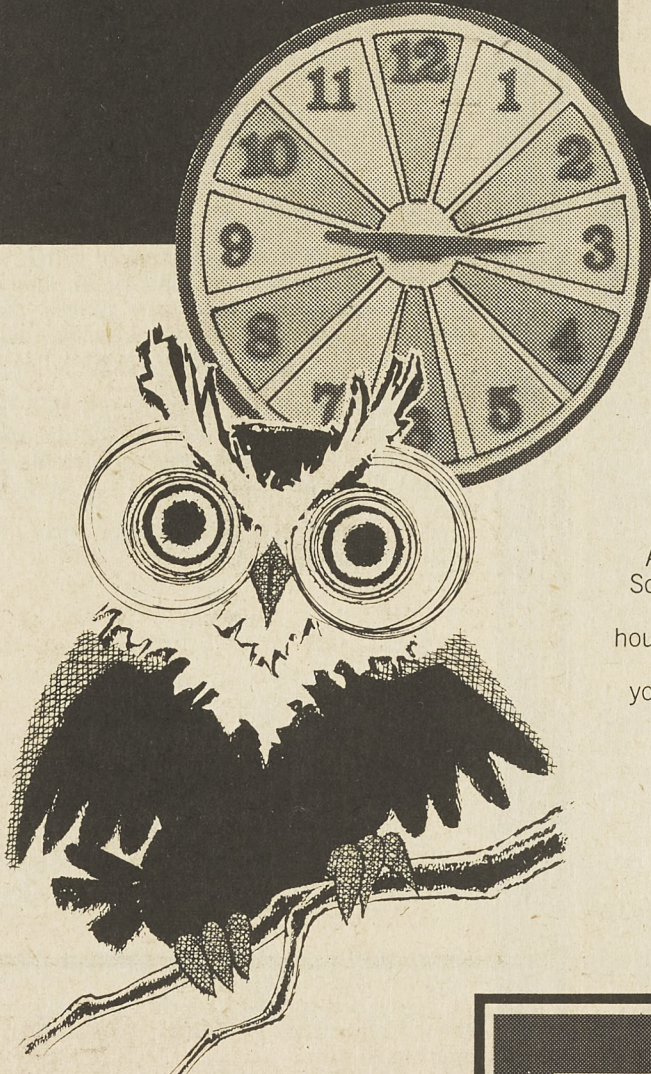

Last year's winner, Joe Reyes of Stockton, is expected back to defend his state point title and also to seek his third consecutive triumph at the Fair. Joe leads in state points this year with 37, while 1968 champion Dave Inch and Lee Damon are second, tied at 26.

Any male driver over 18 may enter the car smash, entering a team of four or as an individual. Sign up at the Fairgrounds is allowed the morning of the event.

in California, AND THEY ARE, you can imagine what they must be like in Texas and the deep south. Many of you know, you were born there. And you left there too, just as soon as you could.

The Teamsters Union really didn't want the agricultural workers. They have organized farm workers for many years only to find it unprofitable. I know this from talking to Vern Cannon, a Teamster Lobbyist in Sacramento, and others. He told me of the many campaigns that the Teamsters have carried on in all of the Western States trying to get the farmers to accept organization. He said that they would sign up the workers at the start of the season and get one month's dues from them and that would be the last dues they would get because the workers had by then moved on to the next crop in another state or even further. And the next year the cycle would start all over.

It was impossible to staff such an organizing drive with organizers, office staff and all that it takes nowadays to run a union. The cost was prohibitive and so fruitless when you had to start all over every year. And really, the teamsters weren't interested in the field workers. They wanted the workers in the packing sheds and the drivers who were more stable and could afford union dues. So, when the growers called in the teamsters to stop Chavez' union, I am sure that the teamsters weren't too happy to oblige but did so only from pressure from the top. We hope that the matter is settled now and that the farm workers will be able to work out an agreement that will bring about peace in the Salinas valley.

When you look at some of the figures as to what an agricultural worker receives as an annual wage you can understand why he lives in such poverty. He is the lowest on the income totem pole and that low figure says that one of every four families (that's entire families) get along on less than $5,000 per year. That figures to less than one hundred dollars a week. It could include both parents working or anyone else in the family that may work. The poverty level set by the government is now at this self-same $5,000 figure. So, therefore, more than 25 percent of the families in these prosperous United States live on poverty level incomes.

The next figure that we come up with is that the average family in the United States of four people, not living in luxury, but just existing on an intermediate level need $10,077 to exist. That is just twice what it takes to live in Poverty. They must pay 17 percent or $1737 of that off the top in taxes. That leaves just $8340 to spend. If they don't have steak and cake every night, they can get along on $44 per week for food, or $2238 per year. Rent is about $196 per month or $2351 annually. In other words, 55 percent of his income goes to food and shelter. Clothing and personal care such as cosmetics eat up $40 per week or $1095 per year. Car and travel burn up another $1,000 per year, at $20 per week. After all of these necessary expenses there is about $1,667 left for the so-called luxuries such as medical care, gifts, contributions, insurance, work expenses, vacations, entertainment and all of the other goodies such as a drink or two now and then. This comes out of that last $1,667.

When I look at some of these figures I can certainly understand the frustrations of the poor blacks and the poor Mexican-Americans living under the conditions that they do in the ghettos and in the fields of, yes, the Salinas Valley, Monterey County, California, U.S.A.

LAW IN ACTION

Want a Ride, Buddy?

Ben was injured when riding in Oscar's car. Oscar was going too fast, missed a turn, and rolled into a ditch. Ben sued Oscar. The first question the court had to settle was this: Was Ben riding as a "passenger" or as a "guest"? As a "guest," Ben could recover damages from Oscar only if Oscar had been driving recklessly or had been drunk. It is much harder for a "guest" to prove liability than a "passenger." If Ben had been a "passenger," riding in return for pay or other "valuable considerations," then Oscar would owe Ben a duty of care not to be negligent. Ben would be likely to win his case if it went to trial.

Before the accident, Ben and Oscar had been mere acquaintances. Both out of work Ben wanted to go to a big town 50 miles south to get his brother to help him find a job. Oscar would drive his car and Ben would pay for a part of the gas. Even if they didn't find work, Ben and Oscar would stay at Ben's brother's house, and borrow some of his fishing tackle to go fishing.

The court ruled that the jury could find that Ben had paid for his ride as "passenger," since the trip was mainly for business and not primarily for a "social purpose." Ben could collect damages.

As a rule, a driver carries insurance, say, for only $5,000 for medical benefits for his guests. This may be too little if someone is hurt badly, especially if the rider turns out to be a "passenger."

When an accident occurs, car pools, joint ventures, shared trips, and the like raise the question of whether a rider is a "passenger" or a "guest."

The Supreme Court recently stated: "A person who accepts a ride does not cease to be a guest and become a passenger merely by extending customary courtesies of the road, such as paying bridge or ferry tolls; and sharing of expenses does not destroy the 'host' and 'guest' relationship if nothing more is involved than the exchange of social amenities and reciprocal hospitality."

Letter to Editor

Sir:

A person could be well-educated and with lots of good senses could still be blind in some way.

Never gave a thought of actual segregation in human race, because I consider myself 'not prejudiced.' How ignorant I was and feel ashamed myself that I never even gave a thought of taking an interest of this matters that you see every day.

I thought I had enough experiences in human race by serving our country, and traveling while I was in U.S. Army for 20 years.

Recently I applied for membership in the Moose Lodge in Del Rey Oaks. After talking to the secretary and applying an application, I told him I was married to a Japanese, then his reply was "I'm sorry, but we can't accept you into this lodge."

He started to show me something on a piece of paper, and I said, "You needn't show me, I can guess what it is: you only take white people." He said "Yes." I said, "That's too bad, because my father was a member of the Moose for 20 years, and my brother is a member for 30 years."

We went to the lodge in Kalamazoo, Michigan as guests of my brother, and nothing was said. If the Del Rey Oaks Moose Lodge feels this way about it why don't they just put a sign on the door saying, "Caucasians Only"?

It would be more honest and would save embarrassment.

Adult School Registration Opens Soon

Adult Education classes for the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District will begin on Thursday, September 10, 1970, according to Gerald O. Anderson, Principal of the Monterey Adult School. Registration will be held on August 31, September 1, 2, and 3 (Monday through Thursday) from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. at the Monterey High School Adult Office or at Seaside High School Adult Office.

Mr. Anderson stated that any person interested in enrolling in a specific class should make every effort to register as early as possible, for there will be some classes which will be closed when they are filled to capacity.

A wide variety of classes will be offered including apprenticeship classes, vocational classes such as radio and television repair, auto mechanics, smog equipment control and tune-up, metal machine and lathe operation, sewing and typing. Classes in nurse's aide and medical and dental receptionist are expected to be filled at an early date. General education classes such as basic English, math, and English and Citizenship for new citizens will also be offered.

Brochures will be available at the Monterey Adult School Office on August 17. Information regarding the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District Adult Evening Program may be had by calling the Monterey Adult School Office, located at Monterey High School, any evening - Monday through Thursday - from 6:00 to 10 p.m. The telephone number is 649-7386.

THE PHONE BOOTH

It's getting harder all the time to find an isolated hide-away, but now you can still get away from it all, yet keep in touch with the rest of the world. Last year the Bell System added a dozen new places to its overseas communications network including the Admiralty, Gilbert and Chatham Islands in the South Pacific.

In 1927, the year Lindbergh flew solo across the Atlantic, overseas communications consisted of a single radio-telephone circuit between New York City and London. Today you can reach 97% of the world's telephones in more than 200 countries and territories.

Registration for the November 3 general election closes September 10. If you'll be 21 years old by election day or are new in the community, you must register to be eligible to vote.

A new law makes it unnecessary for voters who've moved within a county to re-register. Such voters can now notify the County Clerk or Registrar of Voters by mail of their change of address and he will provide the necessary forms to be filled out. (Notices must be postmarked no later than Sept. 10.) You'll also be able to get these forms at many of our business office at 404 Franklin Street in Monterey where we will again be providing voter registration facilities for your convenience.

Grooving Around The Peninsula with Betty Mann

Hi there fellow peninsulans.

Here's hoping for a happy Afro-American Bicentennial week. After sewing a numerous amount of flags for this week's Bicentennial celebrations, and flag raising ceremony, I guess Mrs. Fredrika Evans must be feeling a bit like Betsy Ross. (smile)

Here's hoping and saying a silent prayer that Lee Toler and Jimmy Roy of the Young Adults for Action, and their staff, will get approval of the government to have YAFA become a federally funded organization. All prospects and possibilities look very promising that this program will be approved by Sacramento and the federal government. I personally must say it will be none too soon for this dedicated group of men who have helped and shown the interest in the youth in this community in so many ways. Very few people realize the long hours these men spend organizing programs and constantly working long hours to help solve problems with some of the troubled and disadvantaged youth in Seaside, in addition to working for very little salary. I say to the people of Seaside if you are unaware or doubtful of what YAFA is doing and what it is representing, ask some of the professional people downtown at the courthouse, the jails or the probation department. Most of the contributions to YAFA come from professional businessmen, organizations and private citizens who actually know and realize the good that is coming from this group. They are continually giving contributions to keep YAFA in operation. So let's all say a prayer, and God speed to Lee Toler, Jimmy Roy and their staff and hope this federal approval is passed.

Things that I'm beginning to wonder about are: on the radio the other day a flash came thru that the House on Un-American Activities committee has stated that the SDS (they were the group that marched in protest in the Seaside 4th of July parade) and the Black Panthers were the must uprising communistic groups that are posing a major problem in the country today. After reading the news that Huey Newton, stated that the Black Panthers are learning more towards the Marxists and Lenin philosophy, I am bothered deeply! I don't believe in Uncle Tom-ing and Aunt Jemimin', but I would rather be "dead than red." And I am praying that America will liberate all of its citizens and let us all live together in one mind and one soul, as brothers.

The other day I overheard two young men discussing the expensive cars that are parked in front of the tenants' apartments in Del Monte Manor. One speaking to the other: "Man, have you dug the LTDs, the Eldorados, the Porsches and even a dang Jaguar parked in front of these apartments! Man, I thought these apartments were meant only to be rented to low income and poor people." The other one speaks up and says: "Man, everyone knows this is the things that's happening now; how do you think they could pay the notes on these big rides if they weren't living in those low cost pads and pulling the 'man's' leg?"

Until next week,

-Betty

GETTING READY - New Seaside Apache Football Team, sponsored by Young Adults for Action, go through warm-up exercises before the up-coming season. --Photo by Camera Masters

Footballers Prepare

Through the Bing Crosby Foundation, the Young Adults for Action have provided Seaside with its first Pop Warner football team.

The team, consisting of young men between the ages of 11 and 13, will represent Seaside and surrounding areas. Head coach of the Apaches is George Solomon, who is also recreational coordinator for Y.A.F.A. Other coaches include Lance McNair, Dr. Henry Hutchins and Marvin McKnight.

There are about 60 youths participating in the training at present.

Dollars are still needed to enable Y.A.F.A. to carry on its efforts to give the youngsters of Seaside the best recreational activities possible. More information can be obtained from their office at 1189 Broadway in Seaside.

Volvo Sales Rise

Volvo sales apparently are not affected by the noticeable industry decline. Much to the contrary, Volvo western states sales, recorded for the month of July, came within 13 units of having a best month ever.

In making the announcement, Robert J. Sinclair, president of Volvo Western Distributing, also stated "we anticipate the momentum that started last January to continue through the month of August."

Volvo Western had a record sales month in June and the July figures even surpass that record by 13.5 percent. Volvo sales have been on the increase each month since the beginning of the year. Comparatively, July 1970 sales exceeded the same month of a year ago by a significant 44 percent.

The recently released annual report by AB Volvo, of Sweden, states that "over a longer period the United States has proved to be the most stable car market to Volvo, outside Sweden. United States Volvo sales are expected to reach close to 50,000 units by the end of this year."

Art Commissioners Win Honor At Fair

Two members of the Seaside Art Commission won honors at the recently concluded Monterey County Fair. They are Charles Y. Lee, chairman of the Commission, and Tom Webb, commissioner.

Lee's collage showing his impression of Grand Canyon, which he visited in July, was judged the "Best of Show" in the Special classes in the Crafts Department, with Ione Lewis as chairman of that classification. He also received a blue ribbon for first place in the 2-D collage section.

Drill Team Wins 2nd Prize

Young Adults For Action is proud of their drill team which is receiving statewide recognition in their drill performances.

The most recent competition was on Sunday, August 9, at the Napa County Fair. Following a long parade in the blistering 100 degree heat, all of the marching bands and drill teams were called upon to do a special performance before the Fair's Parade Review Committee at the Napa County Fairgrounds where the parade ended.

Transportation for the team was provided by Operation Shoe String, another community-based organization who often coordinate with YAF in activities for the youth of Seaside.

Members of the Drill Team are: Serena Johnson, captain; Vickie Ellis, co-captain; Sheba Addison, Debbie Massie, Martha Blackwell, Sharon Lindsey, Roberta Watson, Veda Scott, Tanja Johnson, Natalie Wright, Holly Spells, Penny Spells, Caroline Moss, Vontrese Toler, Vickie White.

Businessmen...

The following petition is being circulated in Seaside: "We, the undersigned businessmen, residents and property owners of Seaside, believe it would be in the best interest of all of us and our City, if the Council and other city officials would use their persuasive powers in an effort to stop the contemplated law suit by the members of the Urban Renewal Agency against a person who has contributed much to the development of this city, namely: Mrs. Adeline DiLorenzo."

Proponents of the petition claim that these kind of actions by members of a public body only serve to further divide the citizens of Seaside. Those wishing to sign or circulate the petition should call Pat Patterson at 394-8783.

Adventists Hear Leader's Message

Robert H. Pierson, president of two million Seventh-day Adventists around the world, assured mid-California Adventists that "amidst the shout of raw passions, cacophonous protest and violence, bloodshed and warfare, the work of God has moved steadily forward."

Pierson delivered his message at the 92nd annual convocation of mid-California Adventists at Soquel last week. A crowd of 5000 was on hand for his keynote address which marked the 102nd year of Adventists camp meeting.

Pierson recounted the spread of student and adult witness for Christ during the past year.

Acknowledging that Adventists are already maintaining medical, educational and ministerial work in 193 countries, he warned that human dignity has to be respected by all. "No nationalism, racism, or tribalism must hinder the union of God's people in these turbulent days," he said.

"We cannot love and hate with the same heart," he said. "Because Christ is for the world, Christians of different ethnic backgrounds are not forced together by church membership but rather drawn together by the tender chords of compassionate love."

Unemployment Fairgoers Rose Again Can Ride African Queen

Both employment and unemployment in California in July were above year ago levels, the Departments of Industrial Relations and Human Resources Development in the Human Relations Agency reported recently.

The seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rose to 6.2 percent in July from 6.0 percent in June and was also above the July 1969 rate of 4.4 percent.

Unemployment totaled 558,000 in July, up by 171,000 from July 1969. This year, however, the total rose by 15,000 as unemployment continued to reflect the sluggishness in the economy and layoffs in the aerospace fields.

Between June and July, employment declined by 51,000 a slightly larger-than-usual contraction for this time of year when the end of the school term and the mid-summer lull in agriculture normally reduce employment. In addition to declines in education and agriculture, the release of temporary workers hired for the 1970 census contributed to the over-all decline from June.

Two 30 passenger tourboats plying "African rivers" will be an unusual feature of the California State Fair, August 21-September 9.

Sporting "smoke stacks" although they are powered by 40-horsepower inboard engines--and paint jobs to make them resemble an "African Queen," the brand-new craft will shuttle from the Fair's Fiesta Island dock on regular circuits of the meandering lagoons throughout Cal Expo.

Measuring 30 feet long and eight feet wide, the four boats draw only eight inches of water. They are of wood construction, with a fiberglass covering.

Another water-borne way to get around the fairgrounds will be in two-passenger "fun boats." Passengers may pedal and steer these craft themselves, and can tour the entire area.

The dock for both the tour boats and the pedal boats--operated by a Santa Ana firm--is near the Fair's main entrance.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY - Admiring birthday cake presented at recent senior citizens birthday party last week held at Adult Center on Hilby Avenue are some of July birthday honorees. Those having birthdays in July were Mrs. Eva Donaho, Mrs. Minnie Woodard, Mrs. Cappie Kephart, Mrs. Mary Morgan, Mrs. Grace Hennington and Mr. Charles Kiernan.

Experts To Study Environment

Seven prominent environmental scientists, conservationists and officials of government regulatory commissions and agencies have been named to an environmental policy committee to advise major electric utilities of the western states on siting of future power plants.

The group will serve with 12 utility industry representatives of the Western Systems Coordinating Council WSCC consists of 39 major interconnected power systems that serve the 13 western states and western Canada.

William R. Gould, chairman of WSCC, announced the committee "will formulate guidelines to improve the environmental impact of facilities the industry must build to assure adequate electric energy supplies for the future and "will establish liaison with other environmentally-oriented organizations." The seven non-industry committee members are:

Robert E. Ellis, dean of the College of Forestry and Natural Resources, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado and chairman of the Scientific Advisory Committee for the Rocky Mountain Center on Environment; Rolf Eliassen, professor of Environmental Engineering, Stanford University; M. Boyd Austin, regional engineer, Federal Power Commission, San Francisco; Phillip W. Schneider, Northwest Field Representative for the National Wildlife Federation, Portland and formerly director of the Oregon State Game Department; Jack E. McKee, professor of Environmental Health Engineering, California Institute of Technology, a former member of the AEC Advisory Committee on Reactor Safe-Guards; Robert D. Nelson, director, Utah State Office, U. S. Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City and Ralph H. Wickberg, president, Idaho Public Utilities Commission, Boise Idaho.
